A Time for Priests
In Season & out of Season
Proclaiming God's Word

The Pontifical Irish College is pleased to announce the seventh annual Time for Priests which will take place from 14 to 24 September 2010. Priests both diocesan and religious from Ireland, Britain, the United States and beyond have enjoyed the ambiance, camaraderie, prayer, learning and relaxation afforded them by this gathering. This year the focus is on the priest as preacher and will include perspectives and insights from scripture, the laity and pastoral experience.

The speakers confirmed to date include

- Fr Timothy Radcliffe OP
- Ms Breda O'Brien, teacher and columnist
- Fr Mark Attard OCARM, Gregorian University
- Fr Chris Hayden, Irish College

Liturgies will be celebrated in the College and in various locations in Rome and beyond. There will be opportunities to visit many of the sites associated with the genesis of the Church including the tomb of St Peter and the catacombs. We will also attend an audience with Pope Benedict and visit Subiaco, the birthplace of western monasticism. There will be a day of recollection and a day simply to do as you wish.

The cost is €1,450. A deposit from of €450 is required to secure a place. Please arrange your own travel to Rome. Rooms are en-suite and meals half board. Many dioceses recognise this course as ongoing formation with attendant subsidy. Those who wish to arrive some days early or remain after the course concludes may do so subject to availability. If you wish to reserve a place please telephone 00 39 06 772631 or E Mail ufficio@irishcollege.org Website www.irishcollege.org
